

A floor plan of a room labeled "POM. GOSP. 17,1m2". The room is rectangular and enclosed by a thick black border. At the top and bottom of the room, there are horizontal hatched areas representing windows. On the right side, there is a staircase with a landing and a door leading out. The entire room is contained within a larger dashed-line boundary. Below the room, there are four small squares arranged in a 2x2 grid, and two larger rectangular windows at the bottom.
